

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO
NEW YORK

Media Release

CONSUL GENERAL ENGAGES PRIVATE SECTOR IN NEW YORK

Mrs Rudrawatee Nan Ramgoolam, Consul General was invited to be the feature speaker at the 2nd Manufacturing Summit and Symposium at the Suffolk Community College in Long Island, New York on 21 October, 2011. Mrs Ramgoolam took the opportunity to invite the business community of Trinidad and Tobago origin in New York who were interested in further deepening the scope of engagement between the Trinidad and Tobago and New York business communities. She reiterated the Government of Trinidad and Tobago's commitment to diversifying the economy beyond the energy sector and invited all in attendance to look south to Trinidad and Tobago when thinking of doing business in the Caribbean and Latin America.

(L-R) Honorable William J. Lindsay, Presiding Officer, Suffolk County Legislature; Dafny Irizarry, Chairwoman, Suffolk County Community College Board of Trustees; Honorable Steve Israel, U.S. Representative for the 2nd District of New York; Mrs. Rudrawatee Nan Ramgoolam, Consul General for Trinidad and Tobago; Dr. Nancy L. Zimpher, Chancellor, State University of New York; Honorable Jon Cooper, Suffolk County Legislator for the 18th District; Dr. Shaun L. McKay, President, Suffolk County Community College